PRESS RELEASE

SARAH JOINS LOCAL ONLINE BOOKING WEBSITE MIQUANDO

MiQuando is pleased to announce the appointment of Sarah Ashall as Business Development and Sales Executive.

Sarah will be instrumental in showcasing the range of benefits the online booking service offers, helping new clients adopt the system and providing ongoing support to existing clients.

Sarah brings a wealth of experience and understanding of local business needs, having previously worked for Keith Uren Publications and Mannin Media as well as having ran her own promotions business.

MiQuando, the online booking website, which is based on Prospect Hill, Douglas, enables visitors to the website to book local services online, 24/7, at a time most convenient for them. The Manx company has gone from strength to strength and now has hundreds of services bookable online from across a range of sectors, including restaurants, hair and beauty salons, car valeting and even legal services.

Director Nigel Jones said: 'We are delighted to have Sarah join our team. Her relaxed and friendly manner is ideal for providing the high levels of customer service that business owners who use miquando.com deserve. We have lots of exciting developments planned for this year and we are sure that Sarah will be key in assisting with these and adding to the ever-increasing range and number of services that can be booked online through MiQuando.'
